Crop-season SPEI and total conflict across cumulative Lake Chad samples

Green = negative and significant; gray = not significant; red = positive and significant.
Darker shades indicate larger absolute coefficients. Each 100-km ring uses the baseline estimate from the cumulative sample within the ring's outer radius ($p<0.05$).
Colored cells belong to the baseline estimation support; very light grid cells are excluded.